DAILY PUZZLE CRITICIZES PLAN OF DISSOLUTION

Attorney for Western Pacific Appears Before Federal Judges.

THINKS

SCHEME

Believes It Intended for Union Pacific to Retain Present Advantages.

St. Louis, February 24.-The stock

distribution plan for dissolution of the Union Pacific-Southern Pacific merger, which had been agreed upon by coun-sel for the Harriman lines and At-torney-General Wickersham, was criticized here to-day in arguments be-fore the Federal judges, who must pass on the scheme before it can become effective

The dissolution plan to-day was placed before the United States Court for the District of Utah, which, for this particular purpose, was composed of circuit judges. The judges who of circuit judges. The judges who heard the arguments and who now hold the outcome of the suit in their hands were Walter H. Sanborn, of St. Paul; William C. Hook, of Leavenworth, Kas., and Walter I. Maxwell Ewarts, counsel for the Southern Pacific, in discussing this phase of the plan, said: The Southern Pacific is willing to

"The Southern Pacific is willing to grant to the Western Pacific whatever rights it now has over the Benicia cutoff. These rights the Southern Pacific is willing to perpetuate."

The attorney for the Western Pacific condemned the plan for the exclusive use of the cut-off by the Union and Southern Pacific lines as "tendering opportunities for an invasion of the antitrust law as completely as could be devised."

Under the dissolution plan, the cutoff, which now is the property of the off, which now is the property of the Central Pacific, is to go into the hands of the Union Pacific and the contract by which the Central Pacific gives the Southern Pacific the right to use the Southern Pacific the right to use the cut-off is to be perpetuated.

Attorney-General Wickersham, in explaining the plan to the judges, said he did not think there was danger of menoncy because there was danger of monopoly because there was no domi-nate personality like Harriman in the Stuart Avenue Citizens to Attend Committee Meeting To-Day.

The subcommittee of the Council Committee on Streets, to which the various applications for street car track extensions have been referred, will meet at the City Hall this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Although the meeting is called to hear from the attorneys and engineers for the companies interested, it is stated that there will be present a large delegation of Stuart Avenue property owners to repeat their protest against having any additional tracks enter the section bounded by Robinson, Harrison, Main and Broad Streets.

A subcommittee of the Council Committee on ordinances will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock to consider certain matters relating to the Juvenile Court detention home, and the Council Committee on Claims is called to meet sis afternoon at 5 o'clock.
